

treated to light refreshments. It may be mentioned here that for the last two years the Hostel boys had to remain satisfied by being the runners-up only. It is gratifying to note that their third attempt has been crowned with success which brings home the truth of the saying : " Try, try, try again."

In conclusion we shall be failing in our duty if we fail to thank Profs. R. K. Chakravarti, P. C. Ghosh and J. N. Chakravarti, who took so much interest in the competition, and but for whose support and supervision the competition could not have been run so smoothly. Our thanks also go to the outgoing Secretary Suman Prasanta Sen who left no stone unturned to make the competition a success.

---

OUR EXCHANGES.

Benares Hindu University Magazine (for January, April, July, September and October) ; Hindu School Magazine for June ; Rajendra College Magazine for July ; St. Paul's College Magazine for January ; ভাণ্ডার ( ভাদ্র এবং আশ্বিন ) ; সংস্কৃত সাহিত্য পরিষৎ, Mahamandal Magazine, Student's Chronicle and Serampore College Magazine, Jagannath Intermediate College Magazine, Ravenshavian, Ripon College Magazine, Scottish Churches College Magazine, Cotton College Magazine, Agra College Magazine, Ramjas College Magazine, and Shiamsunder College Magazine,—(all for September) ; Devayatana, Chand Bagh Chronicle, D. A.-V. College Union Magazine—all for October ; Murarichand College Magazine Vol. IX No. I ; Hughli College Magazine for September, D. A. V. College Union Magazine for November, and Cotton College Magazine for December.

---