

have not suffered a defeat except at the hands of Law College.

The great drawback of our Athletic club is that it has no playground of its own. Consequently our players are off form and lack finish. We have made strenuous efforts to secure some share of a ground in the Maidan, but have failed. In vain also have we made strenuous efforts to find a suitable plot of ground to be taken on lease. Prayers and petitions have gone in vain. We have been advised by our friends to raid the Maidan one day with the whole host of over 1,500 boys to produce an impression (a moral impression shall we say?) upon the powers that be, but lovers of law and order as we are, we have not yet taken this extreme step. The day may not be far when we shall be compelled to do something of the kind for how long shall the boys be debarred from sports thus? We pause for a reply.

I now take leave of my Professors, fellow-students and well-wishers, craving pardon for our faults and shortcomings and wishing success to those who after me will shoulder the responsibilities of the College Athletic Club.

• COLLEGE UNION.

The College Union held its 4th sitting on Saturday, the 15th December, in Room No. 4. There was a fair attendance of members. Prof. Pyarimohan Sen Gupta delighted the gathering by reciting two of his poems. Prof. Shyamapada Chakravarti also read a humorous paper (published elsewhere in its number) which was highly appreciated. After this Prof. Chittumar Banerjee read another instalment of his pilgrimage to Holmavran. A bumper feast took place before the members departed late at night.
